LOVE IT! GET IT!

Fabulous beauty buys
 new on the shelves

THE FAB FIVE

- Italian jeweller Bulgari also does luxury in scent form – and at a much more affordable price. Its latest edition, Bulgari Mon Jasmin Noir EDP 50ml, $124, (02) 9695 5678, is a sensual wood, musk and jasmine blend. Make sure to check out the campaign featuring a nude Kirsten Dunst posing with a lion!
- Powders are the ultimate when it comes to multi-tasking cover-ups – if you find the right ones. Bourjois Paris Healthy Mix Powder Foundation, $31, 1800 181 040, can be built up to cover any redness or pigmentation. And despite its matt finish it still lets your natural skin shine through.
- Let your eyes glimmer like child of rock royalty and Rimmel spokesmodel Georgia May Jagger, with the new Rimmel London Glam Eyes Eyeshadow, $10.50, 1800 812 663. We love its golden shimmer for the evenings.
- This may not give you the high cheekbones of sex goddess Megan Fox, but it should help you reach your own complexion perfection. Giorgio Armani Regenesence Multi-Corrective Rejuvenating Cream, $135, (02) 9931 8888.
- Top marks to De Lorenzo's new style range, Elements – it smells good and looks pretty on your bathroom shelf! Amplify, $19.95, 1800 800 347, is great for pumping up hair.

Crystal clear
 Turning pigmented skin into a clear complexion is the beauty world's Holy Grail. This new serum has just joined the Biotherm White D-Tox range. White D-Tox Transdermal Essence, $99, 1300 068 450. It uses a natural combo of plum, pea and algae extracts.

In the money
 You can help women in the developing world when you buy a Dermalogica product marked with the FITT logo (Financial Independence Through Entrepreneurship). Enter your purchase code at fitt.org and $1 will go to a loan to an entrepreneur in a country of your choice.

Saintly skin
 This new gentle foams when you apply it, removing make-up and dirt from your skin. It contains salicylic acid and green tea to help reduce break-outs and redness, and also maintains your skin's natural balance. St. Ives Green Tea Cleanser, $9.99.
