Bourjois celebrates Paris

Paris is a celebration - full of joie de vivre, fashion and romance.

In appreciation of this vibrant heritage, Bourjois has teamed up with a young Parisian artist, Juliette Buré, to create a new collector's range of decorated blush pots based on Parisian monuments.

Every monument has its own district, each with a unique approach to fashion and beauty, and each style is associated with a different blusher. You can feel the warmth of a sunny afternoon shopping spree down the Champs-Élysées with each pot of blush.

RRP $20 each. Stockist inquiries: 1800 181 040.
