Pressed powders

CoverGirl Clean Pressed Powder, $14.40
 I found this product to have an excessively powdery finish, which didn't blend well with my skin. It also has a talcum powder smell, which I found irritating.

★★

Face of Australia Pressed Powder, $11.95
 Great continual coverage, as touch-ups were only needed sporadically. The only real issue was that the product has no brush/sponge provided.

L'Oréal Paris True Match Pressed Powder, $27.95
 My favourite of the three. The product has a convenient sponge and compact mirror, blends easily and lasts well.

WIN!

Reader's tip

Tired of waiting an age for your nails to dry after painting? Popping them under cold running water while they are still slightly tacky dries them faster.
