WE LOVE CHANEL

It's been voted the world's most seductive scent and a must-have for screen sirens from Marilyn Monroe on, and it's estimated that a bottle of Chanel No 5 is sold every 30 seconds. The book The Secret Of Chanel No 5: The Intimate History Of The World's Most Famous Perfumes, by Tilar J. Mazzeo (HarperCollins, $35) and Chanel No 5 Eau Première purse spray (3 x 20ml), $182, are both out this month. The book takes you on a fascinating journey with Coco Chanel's signature scent, created in the 20s, and both it and the spray make our list of summer essentials.
