 PAMPERED

MONDAY

BUY SAFARI PRINT

Himm, the lipstick jungle transfer tattoos they're hyping in LA? Pass. Channelling the monsieur's 50s couture muse Mitzah Bricard, a limited-edition Dior Mitzah eyeshadow palette ($160, 02 9695 4800) takes the leopard trend higher-end. We've got a purr on for the pretty new Vernis polish ($39 each) in Camel and Ebony too.

Grrr! Check out leopard-stamped lips at www.violentlips.com.

WHAT'S CHIC THIS WEEK

Add to calendar. The news, nows and must-knows in the beauty department's diary. So much good stuff, so little time....

Hair rehab! We say go, go, go...

TUESDAY

BOOK HAIRTOX

This is your hair speaking: lock in pre-winter-damage control now or lose split, dry, out-of-control inches later... Check in for a re-silking with the L'Oréal Professionnel Séne Expert FibreCeutic salon treatment (approx. $50, 1300 651 141). "Filler" molecules are "synergized" in to rehab frazzled fibres. Heads up: takeaway FibreCeutic Masques ($34) are out this week.

WEDNESDAY

WEAR RED LIPS TO WORK

Power up the ruby on World MS Day (May 25), donate to MS Australia online (www.kissgoodbyetoms.org) and get behind the national Kiss Goodbye to MS campaign to make treatment and cure a talking point. Fact: Multiple Sclerosis affects 20,000 Australians, three times as many women as men, and the average age of diagnosis is only 30. Paint us red and sign us up.

THURSDAY

DO A PAYDAY FACIAL

"It takes 48 hours to really absorb ingredients and for skin cells to respond. If you want knockout skin on Saturday, lock in a facial, peel or treatment mask for Thursday night," says Jane Wales from Modbod Beauty Boutique in Sydney.

FRIDAY
GO BLONDEWARD AND UPWARD

Preview pics of Kirsten Dunst (left) in her new film Melancholia were the clincher. That's it - we're abandoning the traditional brown-down and bringing back the sultry-wintery blonde! Cancel the beach-bleach - we're talking Water For Elephants-era icy, silver screen-worthy and altogether Gwen-ish. Sigh. Ice, ice, ooh baby...
