What's new, what's hot

BUFFED BOD

Pineapple and mango extracts give Pevonia Botanica's Tropical De-Aging Mousse its delicious scent. The luxe comes courtesy of sea salt from Brittany, France. Divine, $98.50, 1800 069 1116.

FUNNY FACE

A few products—and a lot of laughter—make CoverGirl spokeswoman Ellen DeGeneres glow

YOUR BEAUTY ESSENTIALS?

Well, I have to have a blow-dryer. I'm not fussy, but I can't do the not-washing thing. I do colour. My hair is really light right now. I kind of like this artificial, not-so-natural-blonde look.

IF YOU WEREN'T A TALK-SHOW HOST, YOU'D BE A ...

I'd work with animals in some way. I would interview animals. I'd be a talk-show host for animals.

WHY IS DANCING IMPORTANT TO YOU?

Dancing is freedom, it's joy. I look at my audience before the show starts; they haven't been drinking, the lights are on and somehow they just let loose and have fun.

WHO MAKES YOU LAUGH?

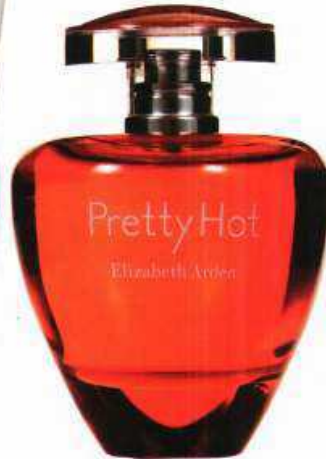

[Wife] Portia. She's hilarious. I laugh every single day. My life is exactly as I want it to be. I get to do what I love.

CoverGirl and Olay Simply Ageless Serum Primer, $17.95, 1800 181 040.

MELTING MOMENT

Milky-skinned Cate Blanchett has long been a fan of Japanese skin-care brand SK-II, and its latest cleansers will have you in a lather. Dry complexions will adore the Facial Treatment Cleansing Cream ($110), while normal skin will suit the Gentle Cleanser ($90); 1800 012 169.

GET FRESH

Like slipping into a pair of scarlet-soled Louboutins, spritzing on Pretty Hot, Elizabeth Arden's latest eau de parfum, is an exercise in sensuality. It's a sultry floral inspired by the South of France's night-blossoming belle de nuit. $90; 1800 015 500.
