

Beauty

Buzz

Little touches of luxury making big beauty statements.

Trend alert!

Silver lining

This winter we're going gaga over silver tones and gun-metal washes. "Grey is the new black!" insists Nicole Thompson, MAC senior artist. "It's an extremely easy way to keep your eye make-up soft and pretty, and it ties into the strong charcoal trends we saw [on runways] this season."

L'Oréal Paris Infalible Eyeshadow in Forbidden Silver, $19.95; 1300 659 359

Revlon Luxurious Colour Molten Metal Eye Shadow Duo in Onyx/Jade, $19.95; 1800 025 488

Max Factor Smoky Eye Effect Eyeshadow in Silver Storm, $21.95; 1800 181 040

we love...
 this new brightening formula. Use it to give skin a quick radiance boost. SK-II Cellumination Mask-In Lotion, $120; 1800 012 169

To dye for

For those who favour DIY over outsourcing: the new breed of at-home hair colours are using foaming formulas to achieve better coverage, by wrapping around each strand and going deeper into the hair shaft. Better still, they are designed to be drip-free.

Clairol Nice 'N Easy Colour Blend Foam, $17.99; 1800 028 280. L'Oréal Paris Sublime Mousse, $17.95; 1300 659 359.

“Applying foundation with a moist make-up brush gives a more sheer finish.”
 —JAMIE COOMBES, DIOR INTERNATIONAL PRO ARTIST

Tried and tested Weekend plans rained out? Indulge in a little pampering with these treatment masks for weary tresses.

Avocado oil and bamboo combine with rejuvenating results.
 Pantene Pro-V Nature Fusion Intensive Penetrating Treatment, $6.99; 1800 028 280.

Hydration for mature locks.
 L'Oréal Professionnel Age Supreme Integral Replenishing Radiance Masque, $32; 1300 651 141

Add body to fine hair with this salon-worthy volumising formula.
 Wella Professionals System Professional Volumize Mask, $39; 1300 889 886