Beauty Ed's fave

A recent trip to my hairdresser put me in a bit of an awkward situation over the state of my hair ends. After examining my locks, my stylist insisted on placing a sheet of white paper underneath my ends for me to look at, while yelping, 'They're as see-through as cellophane!' Got it, got it! From now on it's regular trims and plenty of nourishing treatments for me!

Whitney Port's groomed brows cap off the minimalist look

◀ LESS IS MORE

Fresh-faced Whitney Port only needs minimal make-up to enhance her natural beauty. Here's how to do a quick star-worthy make-under:

- 1 Conceal dark spots such as the under-eye area. Smooth highlighter along the cheek and brow bones for radiance and finish the face with a dusting of sheer foundation powder (A).
- 2 Contour with bronzer along the cheekbones and add a hint of blush on the apples of the cheeks.
- 3 Use a taupe shadow as your base and accent the lash lines with a pink shadow. Draw on a winged line with liquid liner (B) and follow up with mascara.
- 4 Finish with a dab of pale pink lipstick (C).

◀ 5 MINUTES WITH... GIULIANA RANCIC

Giuliana says bronzer is a must-have

She's at every major celebrity red carpet event, on air for E! News and has her own reality show with husband Bill (Giuliana & Bill on the Style Network). We asked interviewer-to-the-stars Giuliana Rancic how she keeps up appearances.

How long do you spend in hair and make-up?

Exactly one hour. I come in [to the E! News studio], we have a morning meeting [to] decide what goes into the show, then at about 8.30am I go down to hair and make-up. We shoot at about 11am or noon and the [hair and make-up] girls are always on set doing touch-ups. So I take about an hour.

What's your beauty style off-camera?

I don't know any more! I wash my hair at work on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, so my blow-dry lasts through the weekend. On the weekend, I put on some ChapStick, a bit of lip gloss and blush. It takes me less than five minutes. I've been in hair and make-up five days a week for eight years so on the weekend I can't be bothered.

Did you get hair and make-up done for your show with Bill?

At first I tried to get the 'E' look, but I realised it's OK to look normal! People want to see the real you. It got to the point where the producers said to me, 'Do you not want that shot in there?' and I said, 'No! Leave it! It's OK if I look ugly!'
